Jeffrey Jiang (江小舟)

Director, APSA

Jeffrey Jiang has been with APSA since 2016. As the liaison representative of ICBC Asia, a Corporate Member of APSA, Jeffrey has been an active member helping APSA in liaising with the banking industry and organising important activities, including the APSA panel at China Securitization Forum (CSF)'s annual conference; membership drive receptions for APSA; the joint forum held in 2018 by APSA with the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers (HKIB) and the Asian Academy of International Law (AAIL) which was well participated by senior representatives from the significant regulatory bodies in the Mainland, and publication of APSA's white paper on "Hong Kong: A Securitisation Financing Hub for Infrastructure and Small and Medium Enterprises" in 2020 in which Jeffrey and his team were responsible for the Chinese translation of the white paper.

Jeffrey currently works at New Markets HK Limited (New Markets). Prior to joining New Markets, Jeffrey worked at ICBC Asia, Merrill Lynch and PBOC. He is the veteran of securitization with more than 15 years of professional experience in both the US and HK markets. Mr Jiang received a B.S. from Xiamen University in China, and an M.S. in Computational Finance from Carnegie Mellon University.
