Vanessa Chan (陳佩詩)

- Director, APSA
- Financial Services Tax Partner, PricewaterhouseCoopers

Vanessa is a Hong Kong based tax professional with a primary focus on Financial Services industry.

She has over 20 years of tax experience and has deep knowledge about the financial service industry in Hong Kong, focusing on International tax and Hong Kong tax.

Before re-joining the professional practice, Vanessa has extensive in-house tax experience and expertise in regional tax management in investment banks and commercial banks. She played a lead role in setting up the tax function for the businesses in the region. In this role, she provided business tax advice covering 10+ jurisdictions in APAC and across all business areas with a primary focus on the Global Markets and Treasury business which included fixed income, currencies and commodities, debt capital market, investment banking and commercial banking. She was also heavily involved in collaborating with the business on the implementation, monitoring and control of tax policies, processes and procedures.

Since returning to professional practice, she has assisted a number of clients on various Hong Kong and international tax related activities and advising clients on the tax implications of financial transactions, commodity transactions and restructuring, utilizing her extensive in-house practical experience and her deep technical tax knowledge in the financial service industry.

Vanessa is an Associate of the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants.
